

Stokely Creek Lodge Snowshoe Trail Map

SNOWSHOE TRAIL INFORMATION

Otter's Trail (2 km out and back): This fun and easy trail starts either at the parking lot or the Lodge. It features many twists and turns that wind along Stokely Creek and past the beautiful Stokely Falls in a tight protected forest. Allow 1 hr.

Lucie's Mukluks Loop (1 km loop): This enjoyable and twisty loop follows along a ridge through a forest containing a tight mixture of conifers. It contains numerous ups and downs. You can access Cedar Cliff Loop, Creekside Trail, and King Mountain Trail from this loop. Allow 40 min.

Cedar Cliff Loop (1 km loop): This slightly more demanding trail has many ups and downs leading to a cliff in an open deciduous forest. The cliff may be covered with an impressive curtain of ice. Be sure to look for the leaning cedar tree growing on the cliff face which gives this cliff its name. Allow 1 hr.

Creekside Trail (12 km out and back from the Lodge): This unique trail is nestled in an open forest between Stokely Creek and a tall ridge. It is mainly flat with a few ups and downs. Your adventure will feature two waterfalls and an active beaver pond and will take you all the way to the Stokely Lake Cabin. Creekside Trail also provides access to the King Mountain Trail, Voyager Trail and Peregrine Pass. Allow 4-6 hrs.

King Mountain Trail (13 km out and back from Lodge) This is our most strenuous and demanding adventure, and it's worth every step. First you will snowshoe to the cabin at King Mountain's West Peak, plan a minimum of 1.5 hr. Next you re off to the North View followed by the Fire Tower Summit. Then you'll pass by the frozen waterfalls and on to the amazing South View. The Voyageur Trail provides a loop option back from G to F.

Peregrine Pass (4 km) This trail makes it's way from Stokely Lk. Cabin to the Hakon Lein Cabin. The middle section follows a geological fault thru King Mtn. with interesting waterfalls, gorges, and ice cliffs. Tip: Ski to those Cabins, switch over to snowshoes and start your adventure. Allow 2 hrs Cabin to Cabin.

SNOWSHOE TIPS AND SAFETY

Always bring water and food on longer trips, Use King Mtn., Stokely Lk., Hakon Lein Cabin for shelter. Register your longer trips at the office for safety and check in when you return. You can always ski to distant points with snowshoes in your pack to explore remote locations.
